Completes Forty Years Service With C. N. R.

SECTION FOREMAN ROBERT ARNOLD RETIRES

For thirty-three years section foreman of the Canadian National Railway between here and the Bradford bridge, Robert Arnold of Main Street, north, has been pensioned off to enjoy a well-earned rest.

Bob, as he is familiarly known to townfolk, completed 40 years of railroading on the 13th of July, being stationed at Wauhaushene for seven years before coming to Newmarket the first of May, 1907. In his entire experience, he has never had a man injured, and there have been but few slight accidents.

He recalled that his first year here, two freight trains collided at the Queen Street bridge, but the only damage was to a carload of cream separators.

Some few years back about fifteen, the Cobalt ran off the track, caused by a broken rail, near the Landing, and the same year a freight train was derailed and tore up a considerable section of track.

Mr. Arnold's only son, Vern, is following in his dad's footsteps, and has already twenty-two years service with the C.N.R., being stationed at Gravenhurst at present.

The C.N.R. had a faithful employee in Bob Arnold. Although foreman, he more than took his share of the work, and we doubt if there is a better kept section than his across Canada. Although retired from the active list of railways, he is not through work, and for the past few weeks has been assisting his brother-in-law on the farm.

"Farming," says Mr. Arnold, "is not as hard as on the section."

WAKES FROM SLEEP TO SEE CAR STOLEN

Wakened from his sleep around three o'clock Wednesday morning Bert Hamilton was just in time to see some person drive off with his car. He shouted at the thief, but the car pulled away.

With Jim Woods he immediately gave chase and found the car abandoned in Bradford, out of gas.

The culprit had also stolen a bicycle belonging to Stan. Cumber, from the Office Specialty Company, leaving it in exchange for the car.

IS APPOINTED TO O.S.M. SALES FORCE

Mr. Harry Bolton of the Office Specialty office staff has been appointed to the sales force of the Toronto office. Harry's many friends in town will wish him every success in his new field of work.

RESERVE THE DATE

Reserve Wednesday, October 30, for the annual hot turkey dinner at Kettleby.

Military Camp To Be Complete Unit

PICTURE SHOWS, RE-CREATION AND CONCERT HALL FEW OF LUXURIES

Operations at Newmarket's new military camp are moving ahead according to Sergt. Gerard and Norman Farr when interviewed this morning. The first of the week things were slowed down by lack of lumber and plumbing supplies, but now material is rolling in.

There are two hundred and fifty-two men on the payroll, 52.3 per cent. local labor, 35 per cent. returned soldiers and the balance key men and skilled workers. The skilled labor had to be brought in from outside as there is a lack of tradesmen in town, while the key men go from one camp to another. Dr. Dales is the camp physician, but there have been no injuries to the workmen thus far.

Thirty-five per cent of the buildings are now standing, and the hydro poles are in position. Fifty per cent of the drainage system has been dug. A real ac-

Completes 40 Years' Service

ROBERT ARNOLD of Main Street north, completed forty years' service with the C.N.R. on July 13, and is now pensioned off by the company he served so faithfully and well.

IS CHAIRMAN OF WAR SAVINGS COMMITTEE

J. O. Little has accepted the chairmanship of the local War Savings Committee for Newmarket and district. A contest is being staged among the girls of the high schools of the county, full particulars of which will be made known at the schools next week.

Many Letters From Boys Overseas

Off For Active Service

PTE. STAN. LEPPARD of the Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Leppard of town, who recently left Camp Borden for an unknown destination.

COMING EVENTS

FRI., AUG. 30—Tea and talent sale to be held in the Christian church basement, under the auspices of Harmony Girls. Price 25c. 3wks33

TUESDAY, SEPT. 3—Special re-opening dance at Cookstown Pavilion. Also continuing every Friday commencing Sept. 6, to Willis Tipping's Orchestra.

quisition to our town is the drill shed, which is being erected in the oval at the far east of the fair grounds. This building which is of a permanent nature, is 125 feet square, and will be equipped with stage and moving picture facilities.

Concerts will be put on for the men, with such artists of stage and screen as Grace Fields, popular English comedienne. It's not going to be so bad to be called up for thirty days' training (Continued on Page 6, Col. 2)

JACOBS JOINS 48TH HIGHLANDERS

John Jacobs, of the staff of the local branch of the Bank of Toronto, has joined the 48th Highlanders, and is stationed in Toronto. John offered his services to the Air Force some months back, but became tired of waiting to be called. Mrs. Ted Gould is taking his place at the bank.

MARY OSBORNE HONORED BY SOFTBALL TEAM

Newmarket's Girls' Softball Team held a farewell party at Coach Alec Webster's cottage at Woodland Beach, Sunday for their third baseman, Mary Osborne, who left on Tuesday to enter St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto, as nurse-in-training.

The girls presented their teammate with a beautiful housecoat and lingerie. The best wishes of the team go with Mary in her new sphere of endeavour.

QYR OFFICER TO BE GIVEN MILITIA POST

Lieut.-Col. J. Murray Muir, former commanding officer of the York Rangers and recently in command of the 20th Veterans' Reserve Company attached to Queen's York Rangers, is being appointed to a post in one of the new militia training centres in Military District No. 2. In the first Great War he served in France with the 127th York Rangers, which became a battalion of railway troops.

CHUCK HARRISON ARRIVES IN OLD LAND

Aldershot, Eng., Aug. 8, 1940.

Dear Mrs. Galbraith,—Well I guess pretty nearly everything Jack said about this place is right.

We landed last Friday and came down from Scotland on the train. Gosh, but it is a beautiful country, with hedges instead of fences, and the farms all laid out more like landscape gardens. But the one thing that mars the appearance is tall posts put up all over the fields to keep aeroplanes from landing.

Everything is ripe here now, and you should see the blackberries, as big around as a dime. And speaking of money, this English stuff is a holler. You pretty nearly need crutches to carry it around, as long as it lasts, which isn't long at the prices.

Have you heard anything of Jack W. yet? I guess he will be over here too. There were seven boatloads came in the convoy, about twelve thousand men, so I couldn't find out much. Before we left Borden, I noticed their tents were all down, so I guessed they had gone. If he is, let me know his address, and I will see him some weekend. I have to stay in today as room-orderly, so I am getting this chance to write.

Please let me know how things are, and some of the town news, as it gets kind of lonesome away from everybody. Tell Ang. West my address, and see if he won't let me have a paper once in a while. There isn't much news from here, only that I ran into Mick McJann on Saturday, down street. He tells me he is getting married next month.

Another fellow from the Lorne Scots was over here the other day, and he is going to tell Gordon Thompson to come over when he can. I would like to see him to kind of get the ropes on different places around here. He should kind of know things pretty well by now.

I will be getting some leave in a week or so, and a bunch of us are going down to London, so I will write and let you know how things are in general down there. Tell anybody where I am, that is, anybody who is interested, so that I can get some letters.

Well, I guess I will close for now. Will see you again soon. Chuck.

RED CROSS NOTICE

The knitting committee will only have the rooms open for receiving knitted goods and handing out wool on Tuesday's and Saturday's during September.

SAFE FROM HUN BOMBERS

Rona, Sheila and Brela Inglis arrived in town last weekend from Edinburgh, Scotland, and will make their home for the duration of the war with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, Lundy's Lane. The children were accompanied by their mother.

PACKAGES FOR TROOPS GET SPECIAL ATTENTION

A new system of handling parcels of tobacco mailed to overseas troops to ensure safe delivery on the other side, has been arranged by Postmaster-General Mulock, it was revealed Friday.

The Postmaster-General said that in the main, failure to deliver tobacco parcels had been due to "circumstances beyond Postoffice control." In one case a large shipment of such parcels was lost as a result of enemy action.

The new system is the result of widespread inquiry in England and Canada, and thorough investigation of individual complaints from origin to destination.

VETERANS INVITED TO DRUMHEAD SERVICE AT STOUFFVILLE

The Stouffville War Veterans will hold their second annual Drum Head service in Stouffville Memorial Park on Sunday, September 1, at 2 p.m. standard time. Lt. Col. Sidney Lambert will conduct the service with other prominent speakers.

A cordial invitation is extended to Veterans from Newmarket and vicinity.

IN ILLUSTRATED MAGAZINE

Two articles of interest to people of this district appear in the illustrated New World, September issue. One is an article on "Youth Hostels of Glenville and Mount Albert," some fourteen pictures illustrating this story, while the other is entitled "Barrie—Soldiers' Town," and Vic Bridges' picture appears as a typical type of soldier.

Back Home

BILL ROBERTS' Erstwhile Newmarket hockey star has recently returned from active service in England. Bill had been suffering badly from asthma in the Old Land. Bill is back with the Bell Telephone Co. and is at present at Sudbury.

First Evacuees Arrive In Newmarket

ONE OF NEWMARKET'S SOLDIERS IN THE HOSPITAL SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND

This week Mrs. Ray Chappel received word that her husband was in the hospital again. Ray was wounded and not recovering from it. Ray is in hopes of getting fixed up this time for good, as he has a doctor he knows, Dr. Wamsborough, a specialist of the Toronto General Hospital, who is well known to many in Canada, but is now in England. We wish him a speedy recovery and the best of good luck.

LIONS vs. BOWLERS ENRICHES SOLDIERS' COMFORTS BY $20

Members of the Newmarket Bowling Club, who are not Lions, challenged Lion members to a duel, and on Tuesday evening some thirty-eight of them locked horns on the local greens. What a night of fun it was, with many old timers, who had not thrown a bowl in years, displaying their prowess once more. And were the boys evenly matched. In the three games the difference amounted to five up for the bowlers.

Everybody enjoyed themselves to the full, and are hot for another such evening. The Soldiers' Comforts Fund benefited to the extent of $20.50.

BRITONS HAVE NO THOUGHT OF DEFEAT, IS DECLARATION

Newmarket's first evacuees arrived in town from the Old Land last week-end. They are Mrs. Molly Inglis of Edinburgh, Scotland, and her three charming young daughters, Sheila, Brela and Rona. Mrs. Inglis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin of Lundy's Lane. They will remain here for the duration of the war, and the children will attend the public school with their pals whom they met two years ago while on a peace-time holiday.

Mrs. Inglis is proud of the British Navy and the convoy that brought the eight ships safely across the Atlantic. Not an enemy craft was sighted. "When we saw the lights of Halifax last Tuesday it was like a child getting his first glimpse of a lighted Christmas tree," she declared. Edinburgh has experienced black-outs for over a year.

There were eight hundred children on their ship, five hundred of them brought out by the government. They were not the sons and daughters of the wealthy but evacuees of middle-class homes of the east coast. They ranged in age from five to fifteen years and there was an adult for each fifteen. While a few of the kiddies cried at night from loneliness, they were on the whole a brave, lively lot. Mrs. Inglis recalled that when the boat docked and the children were throwing their identification discs to the sailors on the deck below for souvenirs, that one small lad became so excited that he threw over his suitcase. The children were going to new homes in all parts of the Dominion and the United States.

"The officials and the Red Cross at Halifax were wonderful," she stated. "We arrived about eight o'clock in the evening and these men and women hadn't been off duty since eight o'clock that morning. Many even hadn't eaten, but they were carrying on cheerfully and without a sign of a let-up."

Inquiring about the morale of the people in the Old Land we learned that the spirit is the "tops." No one had the slightest doubt that Hitler and his allies would soon be on the defensive. Food prices had gone up, especially for vegetables, but there was plenty for all and the rations were not severe. Taxes—well, the British had thought they would be higher and were prepared to throw their all into the effort.

Our next inquiry was about the air raids. Again we learned that if Hitler thinks he is going to frighten the English and Scotch into suing for peace by his method, he is on the wrong bus. Edinburgh had been subjected to numerous raids, but the populace took them in stride. These raids usually occurred between midnight and three o'clock. The small children usually slept through them and had to be carried into the shelters. Mrs. Inglis explained that the majority of the houses

Biggest Year Yet For Horticultural Society

THREE NEW EXHIBITORS WIN MONEY PRIZES

The Newmarket Horticultural Society held a very successful summer show Saturday last in the schoolroom of the United Church. The quality and quantity was far ahead of last year. Hundreds of visitors enjoyed the beautiful blooms. There were three new exhibitors, and all were winners of first and second prizes. Congratulations: come back next year.

The principal winners at Saturday's show were, Mr. N. Gibney with nine firsts and ten seconds, Mr. W. C. Hill, Mr. J. Raeside of Aurora, and Mrs. Chas. Harmon. Mr. N. Gibney was the winner of the beautiful Simpson Trophy for the best display of glads. The Webb Trophy for the best display of asters, was won by Mr. W. C. Hill. Congratulations are in order to Mrs. Ed. Brammer, the winner of the T. Eaton Trophy given to the member with the highest number of points at all shows, with twenty-one firsts and nine seconds, a total of eighty-one points.

At the close of the show the members donated all their flowers to be auctioned. A very tidy sum was realized, and the entire proceeds were turned over to the Red Cross. Mrs. A. Collingwood, Prospect Ave., was the lucky winner of the large basket of flowers.

The officers and members of the Society were delighted to see so many visitors. They also wish to thank all those who donated prizes, and to extend their appreciation to everybody who in any way helped to make this the most successful year in the history of the society.

The following is a list of the prize winners: Gladioli—3 spikes, white, Mrs. C. Harmon, Mr. R. Squires. 3 spikes, buff, apricot, Mr. J. Raeside. 3 spikes, light or dark yellow, Mr. J. Raeside, Mr. W. ### Fined For Having Slot Machine

DANCING AT WALNUT VIEW RENDEZVOUS

Dancing at the Walnut View Rendezvous at Armitage resumed Friday evening, September 6, with Eddie Gibson's Orchestra providing the music for round and square dancing. Reserve this evening and be out for the opening night.

CITIZENS' BAND ASSISTS SOLDIERS' COMFORTS

Despite the unfavorable weather Sunday evening, a fair-sized crowd attended the concert by the Newmarket Citizens' Band at the fair grounds. Bill White's vocal solo "There'll Always Be An England" was one of the highlights of the program of splendid entertainment.

Net proceeds for the Soldiers' Comforts Fund amounted to $22.38. The Veterans appreciate the kindness of the band boys.

DANGEROUS DRIVING CHARGE DISMISSED

S. M. Lloyd of the Township of King, found guilty of keeping a disorderly house, was fined $20 and costs at Newmarket Police Court on Tuesday, and the machine was ordered confiscated.

Constable Martindale, Chief Stuart and Constable Wallace visited the premises of accused on Yonge Street on August 16, and found a slot machine in operation.

The accused, who has been in business since the first of May, stated that he knew these machines were illegal in some places, but thought they were legal in the country. A charge of dangerous driving against John Bruce of Stouffville was dismissed. On a further charge of having bad brakes, accused was fined $10 and costs or 10 days. These charges were laid (Continued on Page 8, Col. 4)

EDITORIAL

WOULDN'T YOU LIKE A SHARE?

We imagine you read with interest, the letters from our soldier boys in England which appear almost weekly in this paper. It is good to hear from them, to know that they are well and fit, and ready for any emergency. It is also gratifying to know that they appreciate the parcels they are receiving from home. "Received your second parcel yesterday for which I want to thank you. Everything was in perfect condition, and a few things from home do touch the spot. You might pass on my thanks to all those who make these parcels possible. A person has to receive one to know just how it is appreciated."

This is one of many such excerpts that could be taken from dozens of letters received by the Soldiers' Comforts. You who have and are contributing to this fund must feel an inward pride, knowing that you have helped make these parcels possible. Each month a parcel of necessities and three hundred cigarettes are sent to our boys. Each month the list of boys to send to grows bigger.

Last Sunday evening the Citizens' Band provided a concert which netted the fund twenty odd dollars. On Tuesday evening the Bowling Club staged an evening with similar results. The local Veterans, who administer the Comfort Funds, are grateful for these gestures of approval. They will spend the money to the best advantage, knowing from experience just what a soldier needs that is not supplied by the government.

Why not share in this work? You will get a great kick out of it. If you do not want to give the Soldiers' Comforts a hand, drop into your tobacconist and send some cigarettes over. One dollar will purchase three hundred, and what a thrill you would give some soldier far away from his native Newmarket.

THE BRITISH SPIRIT

If Hitler hopes to break the morale of the British people by indiscriminate bombing, he should be advised that it will be a long and tedious business. This week we had the pleasure and privilege of interviewing a young mother who had just arrived from Scotland with her three small children. Naturally they were glad to be away from it all—who wouldn't be—but the spirit manifested was, to say the least, marvellous, and made one feel that Britain is the Britain of old.

Yes, blackouts were a nuisance, and the lights of Halifax were a sight to see. Air raids in the nights were annoying, but the children mostly slept through them. Food prices were a trifle higher, but there was plenty of it. Taxes had been increased, but there was no grumbling, and everyone was prepared to throw their all into the fray. The defences all over the country left nothing to be desired, and the British had no thought of defeat.

The conversation made us feel a sight better. It made us believe that when we heard over the air that seventy odd German planes had been shot down to our fourteen, that the report was true, and not the propaganda variety of the Nazis. Yes, Hitler has quite a job on his hands, as he is finding out.

SAME PROBLEM HERE

A number of municipalities will hold a plebiscite some time before general elections to give the electors the right to decide whether the council elected for 1941 shall remain in office for two years or not. Under the Local Government Extension Act, if no vote is taken the term of a council will be automatically extended. A petition of 5 per cent. of the electors will compel the council to hold a plebiscite on the question.

In this regard, the Niagara Advance says it may have been forgotten in these days of far more urgent matters that the provincial government tried last year to force the municipalities of Ontario to change their time-honored system of electing council members, school trustees and those for other public offices. Instead of a single year they would have forced a term of two years, or perhaps for the duration of the war.

The electors didn't like this idea and made their feelings known in no uncertain manner. As a result, when the legislature met, the idea was reluctantly modified. The usual form of elections were held last January and the representatives sit only for the year 1940. Unless the local councils pass by-laws giving the electors a chance to decide at the 1941 elections, the new council will sit for two years or possibly for the duration of the war, because the Ontario government appears to be stubborn on this idea, whether it is popular or not.

It seems rather obvious that the Hanover town council should give the people a right to say how long the term should be. There is something to be said for a two-year term and just as potent arguments on the other side. If it is desirable to save the expense of elections it is quite easy to give acclamations. But simply because this country is at war in the cause of freedom is no reason why the voters in general should be required to give up their rights. If the term is to be for one year, two years, or the duration of the war, it is for the electors of the municipality to decide. —Hanover Post.

NOTE AND COMMENT

A mother may hope that her daughter will get a better husband than she did, but she knows her son will never get as good a wife as his father did!

Veterans of this war should fare better than those of the last, because there already exists a strong organization, the Canadian Legion, veterans of the last war, who know the problems and troubles of rehabilitation. They will provide sympathetic and understanding co-operation for the new crop of veterans.

Italy's rejoicing at the fall of France in the belief that it heralded the immediate end of the war with an Axis success, has proved premature. Italy seems to forget that while the junior partner of an aggressive enterprise has dropped out, the senior partner is still doing business, not only at the old stand, but in many distant parts.

A number of Aurora people feel deeply hurt because Newmarket was chosen as the site for the military camp, while a number of Newmarket people feel just as badly that Aurora was not chosen.

We agree that parking space about town of a Saturday evening is hard to find, but the parking of cars along Timothy Street by Stedman's should be checked at once. Coming onto Main from this side-street is dangerous at all times, but with a row of cars to block the vision accidents are going to happen. Now is the time to put a stop to this practise.

Automobile tires of the future will be smaller with flatter and wider treads, and lower air pressure, predicts a rubber engineer.

TERMS FORD AND "LINDY" NAZI FRIENDS

Robert E. Sherwood, U.S. Playwright in CBC Broadcast, Describes Them as "Bootlickers of Hitler"

Henry Ford and Col. Charles A. Lindbergh were described as "bootlickers of Hitler" by Robert E. Sherwood, U.S. playwright, who twice has won the Pulitzer prize in a radio address telephoned from here to the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Sunday night.

Sherwood's address, which he said was designed to "tell the world that the voice of our country is not expressed by Lindbergh or other bootlickers of Hitler," was recorded for re-broadcast to the entire British Empire by the British Broadcasting Corporation. The speech was not carried by radio stations in the United States.

Ford and Lindbergh are the "two outstanding exponents of what I and many other Americans consider a traitorous point of view," the dramatist said.

"The voice of our country is expressed, truly and eloquently by President Roosevelt and by the other great American political leader, the Republican candidate for President, Wendell Willkie."

Sherwood said that "we Americans are rapidly awakening to the fact that we already are at war; for Hitler and his allies are at war with all men who believe in liberty and democracy and justice."

He condemned Ford as a "worshipper of the machine." He charged that the industrialist approved of the Nazi-German industrial system "with its laborers who have no right to organize or even to speak; no choice as to where they shall work, or for how many hours a day or for what wages."

Sherwood stated Lindbergh "is a man spiritually diseased by Nazism and preaches that in order to avoid war with the totalitarian states we must make friends with them; we must flatter them; we must imitate them."

Mr. Sherwood said constructive help by the United States for Canada and Britain must be increased.

The man sniffed contemptuously at the ties the clerk showed him. Then he noticed that the clerk carefully put them away in a separate box.

"What becomes of those?" he asked. "Well," said the clerk, "we sell them to women who come in to buy ties for men."

ADVANCE REGISTRATION IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

An advance registration in the Public Schools of Newmarket for beginners, and those in other grades who have come to Newmarket since June, will be held on Friday, August 30, between hours of 10 and 11 a.m.

Parents and guardians are requested to register their children in advance in order to facilitate the formation of classes prior to the opening of school on Sept. 3. A child may be registered even though he or she may be out of town.

SAVE FOR THIS DATE APRIL 30, 1941

On this date you will be called upon to pay your Income Tax, the penalties for non-payment are severe. Every loyal Canadian should see that this call is gladly and promptly met, the question of penalties is negligible as compared to our duty in the matter.

Income taxes have been increased—but so has our determination to defeat the Nazi Reich. The income tax helps buy the planes, tanks, guns, shells and ships with which our men will smash the power of the enemy. A Savings Account opened at The Bank of Toronto today—and followed by regular deposits—will enable you to do your duty. The Manager of The Bank of Toronto is ready to advise you of the amount you will need—and how best to budget for planned saving.

ALBERT PRESTON BURIED AT PINE ORCHARD

Well Known Resident Was Fatally Stricken.

A well known resident of Aurora and district, Albert Preston, was buried Saturday, August 17, following a service at his residence, and at Wesley United Church. Mr. Preston died suddenly Thursday after being stricken with a heart attack.

Rev. T. R. White and Rev. W. Westcott conducted the funeral services, while interment was made in Pine Orchard cemetery. Born at Sharon in 1876, he moved with his family soon after to Whitechurch township. For many years Mr. Preston operated a "thresher" in the district. He retired 14 years ago to Aurora.

He is survived by his wife, whom he married in 1899, also four daughters, Misses Gladys and Hazel Preston; Mrs. Robt. Foote, Mrs. K. McCleary, all of Aurora; six brothers, George, Vandorf, Harry and Les, Pine Orchard; Charlie, Ballantrae; Fred, Bethesda; William, Toronto, and five sisters, Mrs. Alfred Pattenden, Vandorf; Mrs. Austin Yake, Lemoville; Mrs. Will Pattenden, Stouffville; Mrs. John Clayton, Newmarket; Mrs. Leonard Smith, Shkelton, Sask., and five grandchildren.

FORGED CHEQUES ON STOUFFVILLE SCHOOL BD.

Using the name of the school board's secretary, J. S. Dougherty, a man signing himself E. McDonald, forged several cheques in neighboring municipalities, after having purported to have transacted business with the Stouffville trustees.

In each case the mysterious McDonald made a poor attempt at forging the name of the secretary, yet the innocent persons who accepted them didn't know that all cheques issued by the board are signed both by the secretary and the chairman.

Fortunately in each case only sums of five or seven dollars was called for on the cheques. Persons were duped at Sutton, Brown Hill and Sandford. In the latter case the store keeper passed the cheque over to Mr. Harry Spang of the 8th con., Markham, in order to save exchange, but when Harry presented the paper at the bank he learned it was a forgery.

The man who signed himself E. McDonald stated that he had sold supplied to the Stouffville board as an explanation of how he came to receive the cheque, and as it was a very small amount he wanted it cashed. He is still at large.—Stouffville Tribune.

FORMER RESIDENT, JAMES BOLAND, DEAD

James P. Boland, former resident of town, was buried at St. John's Cemetery, Newmarket, on Monday morning. Born in Mt. Albert, Mr. Boland, at one time, was employed by the H. H. Wilson shoe store here, moving to Toronto some forty years back.

For the past twenty years he has been with the Walk Over Shoe Stores. He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Jerry Herrington, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mrs. Thompson, Toronto, and a brother, Charlie, of Toronto.

The Gladiolus Show

By Golden Glow

"The last the best of all the game!" The Gladiolus Show on Saturday ended up the series of flower shows for the season, and without a doubt, and everything else notwithstanding, it was the best of all! Such color, such magnificent spikes of bloom, all so stately and straight—and so tall—and such a grand variety of color, and combination of colors! It was better even than our usual gladiolus show (which is always beyond comparison, although perhaps there were not so many exhibits; but for quality, I feel sure there will be nothing to outclass it in any gladiolus show this summer in Ontario. That sounds a bit boastful, but I do really think I am right, and if anyone knows different, I am open to conviction.

If anyone could show anything lovelier than those two exhibits of pure white gladioli that met your eye as you descended the steps to the Sunday school room, in Trinity United Church, where the flower show was held, then I, for one, would like to see it. They are named "Star of Bethlehem," and I understand were shown by a member who has never before completed here. Mrs. Harman of Strigley street.

Farther along were some magnificent specimens of Picardy, a pink variety, which I do most fervently love. They are so splendid, but rather overpowering as a bouquet, unless one possesses large vases or containers, for the growth this year has been tremendous.

It is hard to decide which color or combination of colors one prefers. You look at the flame-colored ones and think that is your favorite. Then the beautiful pale yellow, or the deep orange tinted ones, and can't decide. Then you see the Mother Macree the pinky lavender shade. Then farther along, the pure purple, or should I say violet? And you are still farther from deciding which you will select as your choice.

The flaming orange shade, shading to pale yellow in the throat is called "Bit of Heaven," and is particularly fine. Then another, a perfect cerise color is unusual. The scarlet ones did lend such color to the scene, as you view it from the steps—didn't we used to call them "Sultans?"

But here I am neglecting all the other lovely flowers in Saturday's show, and there were plenty of other beauties. Dahlias, a tableful of them with huge massive heads, too heavy really to stand up. Gorgeous ones, and jars of the cactus variety and the dainty "pom-poms."

The zinnias I particularly like, and they were wonderful, the large variety and the small. Ruffled petunias, so double; cosmos, salpiglossis, careopsis, bright yellow and golden brown scabiosa, verbennas; a jar of flaming scabiosa looked beautiful. Splendid display of asters and marigolds of all kinds, so rich in color and variety.

There was a table with a display of annuals from one member's garden, and it was amazing the variety she showed. Taking it altogether, it was a particularly interesting exhibit of what Newmarket members can produce. And for sheer beauty and color there never was a better show, I feel sure.

FIGHTER PLANE PRICE SET AT $22,250

For the information of any one with the money to spare or the urge to collect it, a fighter plane for the Royal Air Force can be bought with $5,000 (22,250) and a bomber costs $20,000 ($89,000). The figures were given by Lord Beaverbrook, Canadian-born Minister of Aircraft Production, in reply to numerous inquiries. People wishing to start funds thought it would be a good idea to be told how much was aimed at and how many planes that would buy. One suggestion is that the Air Ministry list prices of airplane parts so that patriotic folk who can't contribute a fighting plane might buy some instrument or a bolt or two for the war effort.

LARGE GROUP OF GROWERS ATTEND POTATO FIELD DAY

Guard Against Late Blight by Spraying or Dusting Now.

As we reported some time ago, a series of experiments and demonstration acre plots on twelve farms in Mount Albert and Zephyr districts is being conducted by the Department of Agriculture. At the Field Day attended by about 70 growers recently, reference was made to disease control and growers were urged to use Bordeaux Mixture along with the poison to control Late Blight. Mr. J. A. Brown, supervisor of these lots, reports that there are a great many unsprayed fields showing indications of blight which should be checked at once.

Should weather conditions, favorable to the development of the disease, persist, growers may suffer a substantial reduction in yield and value of their crop. However, if the crop is kept under careful observation for the symptoms of the disease and the proper control measures employed where necessary, losses may be reduced to a minimum.

The organism which causes Late Blight is a fungus. It appears principally on the leaves and occasionally on the stems as irregular water-soaked areas surrounded by a yellow margin. Later these affected areas turn brown and a rapid decay of the entire foliage usually results. Prolonged periods of warm moist weather with cool nights tend to favor the development of the disease.

The lower surface of the infected leaves often reveals a fine white mildew which is the fruiting stage of the fungus. The spores which are produced here fall to the ground and are washed into the soil where they infect the tubers causing rot should rains appear at this stage. Bright sunlight, however, destroys these spores if they remain on the surface of the ground for any length of time.

Late Blight can be kept under control by regular and frequent applications of Bordeaux spray or dust. This treatment also helps to control the Potato Leaf-hopper. When preparing the Bordeaux mixture, use 1 lb. Bluestone and 1 lb. Hydrated Lime to every 10 gals. of water. To be effective, the spray should be applied to both the upper and lower surface of the leaves, using a pump pressure of 200-300 lbs. The higher pressures break the spray up finer and a more complete coverage of the foliage is accomplished. Ready mixed dusts are made available by reliable companies, and have proven quite effective.

WHITCHURCH GETS 1,000 PHEASANTS

A proclamation has been posted reminding the public that the Township of Whitchurch has been made a game preserve. This warning notice comes simultaneously with the placement of about 1,000 young pheasants in the municipality by the Department of Game and Fisheries for the Province of Ontario.

Persons found molesting, killing or shooting at these birds will be prosecuted, and game wardens have been posted to see that no breach of the law is made by hunters.

No doubt all hunters will be anxious to co-operate in the establishment of this new game preserve. Open days for shooting pheasants will be set each season and made public. In the meantime, watch for offenders.

MRS. GEO. BOWSER DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. George Bowser, a well known resident of the 2nd concession of Whitchurch, died suddenly at her home on Friday evening, August 16th, in her 70th year.

The late Mrs. Bowser, formerly Eva Holman, was born in England in 1871, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Holman. She came to Canada with her parents when quite a young girl.

After her marriage to Mr. Bowser they resided in King township for a few years. They then moved to the 2nd concession of Whitchurch, where they have lived for the past 34 years.

The service, conducted by Rev. W. A. Westcott, was held at the residence on Monday afternoon, August 19th. Interment was held in the Aurora Cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, one son, and two daughters, Mary and Charlie at home, and Mrs. W. I. Monteith of Toronto.

SUTTON-BORN IN ARMY OFFICER DIES IN ENGLAND

Word was received in Sutton of the death at Bath, England, of Lt. Col. Alexander Anderson, late of the R.A.M.C., in his 98th year, on July 28th. Col. Anderson was a son of the late James Anderson, who lived at Almslee Hill, Sutton, and who was Chief Factor of the Hudson's Bay Company.

The late Col. Anderson received his primary education here and after graduating from McGill University, Montreal, went to India with the Royal Medical Corp. Since his retirement he had lived in England and had not visited Sutton for many years. He is survived by his son, also retired from army service, but who is now back in army work. Another son was killed in Arabia in the Great War.

The only remaining members of the family in Sutton are Miss Emily Anderson and her two brothers, Bouchier and Alex B. Anderson.

WON $15 CASH PRIZE

Mrs. George Myers of town, was one of the lucky winners of the draw sponsored by the Aurora Boys' Band last week. The award was $15.00.

A satisfactory dust can be prepared by mixing 80 lbs. Hydrated Lime with 20 lbs. Monohydrated Copper Sulphate. This should be applied at 30-50 lbs. per acre when the dew is on.

BOWMAN YONGE STREET PROPERTY SOLD

The country property that once was the residence of the late John M. Bowman, has been sold to a Sudbury business man.

This property of 35 acres is located on the east side of Yonge St., just above Richmond Hill. It is actually lot 53, concession 1, Markham township. Part of the area is set out in orchard and the balance is excellent garden land. A small creek flows through the rear of the property.

There are two houses on the parcel, with a main residence of nine rooms, and a five-roomed frame bungalow.

The late Mr. Bowman who, for years was manager of the Davis brick works, purchased this property from Mrs. Augusta Biggar in 1917, remodelled the house and made other extensive improvements. When Mr. Bowman purchased this property it contained 60 acres, but later he sold part of it to the Royal Orange Lodge. Mrs. Hedley Shaw, after selling her country estate at Newmarket, occupied the place for a year as a tenant.

The new purchaser intends taking immediate possession of the property, and will make it his permanent residence.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT ROBS FARMER OF EYESIGHT

While operating a binder at his farm on the second concession of Whitchurch recently, Mr. Ralph Playter met with a peculiar accident.

The wooden slats revolved by reel broke in the heavy grain and a sliver flew back and pierced his eye. Dr. Boulding was called and had Mr. Playter removed to the General Hospital. It is expected that he will lose the sight of his eye.

A LITTLE COUNTRY PAPER

Printed by Request

I get a little paper from a little country town—
A far cry from the dailies that on Sunday's weigh us down;
It's printed every Thursday, and it has no supplement, Nor colored rotogravure, but I'm always glad it's sent.

It gives no clever verses by the syndicated bards,
But states that Mrs. Williams entertained some friends at cards;

"Ye scribe" saw Judge McArthur shaking hands with friends today—
It says the Curtis family sold out and moved away.

On Boulder Dam it's silent, and there's nothing on finance.
It tells that the Rebekahs gave an installation dance.
That Miss Day is returning soon
to open up her school,
That Alexander Hargrave lost a valuable mule.

It's glad that Jimmy Gallagher
can be around again;
It claims that the alfalfa crop is much in need of rain;
The supervisors voted for the road
work to commence;
Mr. Smith has bought the lumber for his new garage and fence.

The worldly ones may smile at it,
but theirs are tender smiles—
These home town items form a bond through many years and miles.

Oh, little country paper, with your little weekly talks!
I like to wander with you down
remember roads and walks.

CONGRATULATIONS CUBS AND SCOUTS

The Wolf Cubs and Boy Scouts certainly need to be congratulated for doing such splendid work during the registering last week.
They went about their work in a fine and efficient manner. Pack Leader Garry Proctor did a splendid job of rounding up the Cubs on short notice.

Weddings

CROZIER-BARTLETT

The marriage has been announced in Toronto of Miss Verna
D. H. Bartlett, daughter of Mrs.
Bartlett and the late David Bartlett, to John Latimer Crozier of Sutton, son of Mr. Archibald
Crozier and the late Mrs. Crozier.
The ceremony was private, at the home of Rev. N. A. McMurray, Toronto, on August 17th.

Mr. Crozier has been practicing law in partnership with his father in Sutton, while his bride was last year a teacher at Sutton Continuation School.

BARSELAAR-NICOL

Miss Audrey Yvonne, only daughter of Mrs. M. V. Nicol, was united in marriage at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. W. R.
Stewart, Aurora, to Arie Barselaar, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.
Barselaar, of Newmarket. Rev.
E. J. Thompson, of the Aurora United Church, conducted the service in a room decorated with gladioli, on Saturday.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. L. E. Robinson, of Newark, New Jersey.
She was gown in a hand-made gown of white marquisette, over tulle with trimming of satin oak leaves and a fingertip veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Sweetheart roses.

Miss Beatrice Rothwell, her bridesmaid, wore a gown of blue net over tulle and carried Talisman roses with gypsophelia.
The groom was supported by Isaac Leppard, of Newmarket.
Miss Alexena Morton played the wedding music.

On their return from their wedding trip, the couple will live at Newmarket.

THE "GERMAN RELIGION"

A document originally handed as a memorandum to the Prussian Ministry of Education throws some light on the religious aims of Nazi educational policy. It demands that the State should take over the education of German religious preachers, "as the religious communities are no longer able to undertake this." It finds it strange that in German universities today, Jewish writings should be used in the education of theologians, and that Germans should let themselves be served in the churches by people who could equally well preach in a synagogue. It says that "a form of religion which has weathered the storm of 1933 and still wants to go on fighting, must be destroyed as a whole. It is not capable of reformation."

The reason given for the necessity of the change is that there is a lack of German religious speakers equal in quality to the German pastors. "The Gospel of the German religion must be more creative, and must have its own message. It must be a complete contrast to the old theology." — Swiss Evangelical Press Service.

"Name a poisonous substance."
"Aviation."
"Explain yourself."
"One drop will kill."

who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Church-hill, have returned to their homes.

Miss Florence Bird of Fredericton, New Brunswick, is visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs.
Churchill, and Mr. Churchill.

Mr. Tom Norris of Toronto was in town over the weekend and attended the linen shower given Monday evening for his boyhood friend, Pte. Roy Stickwood, and bride.

Mrs. Gordon Kemp of Geraldton is visiting her mother, Mrs.
Joseph Robinson, Gorham street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Apps and children of Toronto spent the weekend with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Apps.

Mrs. Henry Burke is home from Detroit.

Miss Mary Osborne left town on Tuesday for Toronto where she entered St. Michael's Hospital as nurse-in-training.

Miss Myrlda McCabe has returned home after holidaying at Grand Bend, Lake Huron.

Mr. George Johns was home from Niagara Falls for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kyle of Toronto are spending the week at Chester Best's.

Mrs. Freeman Lloyd and a daughter, Mrs. E. Wood, spent a few days last week in London visiting Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson, formerly of Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Tinegate and children of Welland have returned home after spending three weeks with Mrs. Tinegate's mother, Mrs. Sanderson, and Harold.

W. J. Smithers of Renfrew, former manager of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal, spent the weekend in town with
K. M. R. Stiver.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Webster and children have returned home from their cottage at Woodland Beach.

Mr. Robert Smith left last week on a business trip to Western Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Best are on a trip down the Saginaw this week.

Miss Nellie Taylor is spending this week in Toronto.

Mrs. H. P. Gilman, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, has sufficiently recovered to be removed to her home.

Mrs. Percy Thomas of Oba was a visitor in town this week.

Miss Aileen Arnold was holi-daying in Victoria Harbour last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Cook are here from Sudbury on holidays.

Miss Belle Fierheller of Detroit is visiting her sister, Irene.

Mr. and Mrs. George West and children of Midland spent Tuesday in town.

ICELAND

By Golden Glow

The letters from our six Newmarket soldiers, who belong to the Royal Regiment of Canada, tell us this week the ban is lifted,
and they can now tell us they are in Iceland, but they say "we think you have pretty well known all along!"

We had read between the lines, and put two-and-two together! We knew it wasn't Egypt, but it had been rumored they were being sent to the East Northern Africa or somewhere over there.
So now we know that they left Halifax in a convoy of 90 ships, but were all together by themselves, the whole regiment, in the Empress of Australia, the boat in which the King and Queen left Canada for home last year, and from what they say, every one of them, they had a wonderful trip! In fact, one of them said in a letter that it was "like heaven" after their experience at Camp Borden!

It seems that the Commander General of all the Canadian troops, and the head of the Second Division as well, arrived at Camp Borden after the "Royals" were all packed up, tents and all, expecting to leave through the night on the Wednesday, a little over a week after leaving exhibition camp, but were held up for inspection, and that night and the two following nights they slept in the open with a ground sheet for covering, and the mosquitoes and black flies "taking chunks out of them."

On Friday they stood for five hours waiting the order to march,
full equipment on their backs, waiting all through a heavy downpour of rain, and a severe thunderstorm that lasted pretty well all the five hours, and at ten o'clock at night entrained for Toronto, where they were for half an hour before starting for Halifax.

They seem to have enjoyed the train trip, but they didn't know where they were being sent, although there were all kinds of rumours, as I have said, rumours of a secret mission, and the majority thought it was to northern Africa. However, they ended up in Iceland, I fancy much to the disgust of some of them who hoped to go to England. But to Iceland they went, and the people of that far away island didn't know what to make of them landing there, for they didn't feel that they had any part in the war.

The Royal Regiment has put in a busy time mounting anti-aircraft guns, digging trenches, making air-raid shelters, and teaching the people what to do in event of an air-raid, and dear knows what else. Now at last, the ban is lifted, and they can say where they are—the reason for the "secret mission" evidently is a thing of the past, and they are ready for the enemy if, and when, he arrives.

But our Newmarket boys have found themselves in a strange, fairy-story country, maybe not so comfortable as we should hope and imagine a fairy-story land to be, but so absolutely different to what they have been accustomed to all their lives! I think the perpetual daylight is what has intrigued them most—if not really annoyed them, for they could not seem to sleep properly.
All the same, it must have been of inestimable benefit in accomplishing the task they were sent there to do, for they could work in relays. I see by their letters they worked seven days a week, so the necessity for haste must have been urgent.

Then the snow-capped mountains, the hot, sulphur springs, the geysers, the horrible destruction caused by the volcanoes leaving such a devastated country where the lava had flowed over the land, glacier deposits, too, scarring the mountain-side.
But the high, grassy plateaus where peculiar looking sheep graze, the numberless wild fowl,
the strange new varieties of fish,
the ponies and two-wheeled carts used instead of horses and wagons, the quaint dress of the natives, proud, self-reliant folk, proud of their Viking ancestry.

The different letters of the six boys have given us many little glimpses into their life in far-away Iceland, and of the sterling qualities of the Icelanders, who set a high standard and expect all and sundry to live up to it. And I judge the majority do, too, for they seem to be outstanding people, upright and well educated.

And that brings me to what one of them said in his letter lately, that English was compulsory in the schools. In former times they studied the classics, but now I fancy they concentrate on English, for in the past ten years or so they have increased their trade with Britain by leaps and bounds. Since the advent of motor-driven craft, also radios, and more modern methods of fishing, I mean.

The Regiment seems to be scattered miles apart all along the coast, and in one letter it tells of the writer being stationed in a light-house high up on a cliff. He said it was splendid on a clear day, that you could see for miles over the ocean, in all directions, but when he was writing, he said there was a pea-soup fog outside, blotting out everything, a strong east wind, and a slashing rain.
(Not so good, I guess.)

The letter was dated a month ago. Three or four of them were billeted in a little room in the light-house, and the people, the keeper and his family, gave them hot water or tea, or heated up their tin of rations for them when wanted. They all say how cold it is, and one said he wore his great-coat, and socks to bed, and had heaps of blankets over him.

They all tell us about the wild fowl that nest on Iceland—on the cliffs that abound there. The inhabitants catch them in nets.
They are called puffins—they look very much like pelicans when sitting down, but have red webbed feet and a funny colored beak. He added, "They make pretty good eating, but a little tough."

In another letter it says that where the writer was on a little Island to the south of the mainland, there were no trees at all, absolutely no fruit whatever, and how they do miss it. It was written July 21, and he said it gets dark now around 12 p.m. to about 3 a.m. (but more like a deep twilight than really dark. Well, by now they'll have it dark all night!)

If parcels take proportionately longer than letters, perhaps we'd better be thinking about our Christmas parcels to our six Royal Regiment soldier boys, for up to now, it has taken our letters a month to come, and I suppose ours as long as that to go. When we go off daylight saving, the end of September, we will find a tremendous difference in our own daylight hours, but it won't be dark quite all day and all night as they will presently have away up there in the Arctic.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

On Monday evening of this week a jolly gathering of friends, relatives and neighbours assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
George McCann, Queen St., to give Pte. and Mrs. Roy Stickwood a surprise linen shower.

The bride, formerly Miss Phyllis Bailey, was completely taken by surprise when Jackie McCarnan wheeled in a doll carriage heaped high with wedding gifts, but entered into the spirit of the party, even to untying the many knots in the ribbons around her presents. She was the recipient of many beautiful gifts of linen, which will remind her in years to come of a very pleasant occasion.

The rest of the evening was spent in cards and games, after which a dainty lunch was served.
Mrs. Stickwood will remain in Newmarket for the duration of the war.

GUARD YOUR BEAUTY

The skin of the face is most tender and easily affected by the sun . . . wind . . . air. Drying the skin, causing fine lines and wrinkles, the muscles and tissues of the face become lax,
the pores become enlarged and need stimulation and toning.

FORMER RESIDENT, GEORGE PEPPIATT, DIES IN TORONTO

Was Photographer Here Forty Years Ago

George E. Peppiatt, one-time Newmarket photographer, for the last thirty years resident of Toronto, passed away at the home of his daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Burkenmeyer and Mrs. Claire Semple, in Toronto, on Monday, in his 89th year.

Well known to old-time residents, Mr. Peppiatt's picture gallery was in the upstairs of the new Hillsdale Dairy. He also managed a dancing school.

A splendid singer, during his years here, he took an active part in various societies of the community, and the choir of St.
Paul's Anglican Church.

He had been in ill health for only the past few days, and retained all his faculties to the last.
The funeral service was held Wednesday morning from the funeral chapel of Roadhouse and Rose, with interment at Newmarket cemetery.

He is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Emma Smith, Huntsville; Mrs. Claire Semple, Toronto; Mrs. Gertrude Burkenmeyer, Toronto; Mrs. Grace Brown and Mrs. B. Wafford, Richmond Hill,
and Mrs. K. Mabson, California; and three sons, Arthur T. of Newmarket; Frank G. of Montreal, and Harry, of Toronto.

THORNHILL GIRLS PLAY HERE TO-NIGHT

Richmond Hill Take Redmen Three Straight

TEDDIE BENNETT
STAR OF SERIES

Richmond Hill, led by Teddie Bennett, made it three in a row in the finals of the York-Simcoe League Monday night, when they took Newmarket Redmen by a 3-2 count. The veteran Bennett allowed but few scattered hits to the most powerful team the Canal Town could muster. The husky twirler, to our mind, is the "all star" of the all star team of the league.

For the first four innings neither team were able to get a man around the sacks into scoring position, but finally, in the fifth, a fly over Harv Gibney's head paved the way for two runs. Charlie Holmes' charges came back in their half of the sixth, with a brace of runs to tie the count, and it looked as if the old ball game would result in a tie. However, the homesters nicked Niles for a counter in the seventh and the Redmen were unable to reply.

It was a smart game of ball throughout, with the umpires handling things ably. Smithy, the base umpire, did slip up on two plays that meant a lot to Newmarket, but in both occasions he wasn't in position to see.

Bennett snuck away on one occasion from second to third, when Niles was just about to deliver, and the other was when he called Herbie Cain out at first sack when two Richmond Hill players were endeavouring to

ESCORT FOR GRACIE AT JASPER

Appearing at Jasper Park Lodge in her first charity concert in the Canadian Rockies recently, Gracie Fields, made excellent use of the spare time during her mountain visit. It was a red letter hour when she met two of Canada's famous Royal Canadian Mounted Police while strolling in the environs of Outlook Cabin where King George and Queen Elizabeth stayed during their visit a year ago. Walking with the popular comedienne are Sgt. J. W. Faulkner, at Gracie's right, and Const. E. C. R. Woods.

SOLDIER WRITES POETRY IN LEISURE HOURS

The following letters have been received by Mrs. Lem Pipher from her son, Wilfred, who is with the Royal Regiment of Canada, in Iceland. To pass away his leisure hours, Wilf, is writing poetry, two of which were included with his letters.

Iceland, Aug. 4, 1940.

Dear Mother and all,
Another week gone by and I am still in one piece, and in the very best of health. I hope this letter finds all at home the same way. It has rained every day for the past week, and you would wonder where all the rain comes from, for there is not enough sun to draw water for a herd of cows.

We are all hoping and wishing that the next ship of mail will soon arrive. I have not heard from Mary and Edna, so I guess that they forgot me. I got a letter from Johnny Lyon, and he is fine, and he wishes he could enlist, but it's on account of his fingers.

I was at a show in the English canteen last night, and it was a pretty good show. I saw the latest war pictures that have been taken in the last month, but they won't be shown in Canada until the war is over. I saw air raids on ships, on land, and one person has no idea what one bomb can do.

I saw troops being rushed up to the front lines and they all seemed to be happy. Have you heard from Ira, and is he at Borden yet? I do not think that we are going to stay on this island much longer. I think the next move might be to England, Scotland or Ireland, and there is a rumour that we will be back in Toronto for our leave and Christmas dinner, then be sent to the west or the east coast for home defence.

How are the kids enjoying their holidays? I guess that they will soon be going back to school. How is dad, and what is he working at? I wrote to Mary and Edna, and I sent some pictures to Edna, and I told her to give some to you after she is through with them. I was looking through my packs and I found that letter that Mr. Eves sent me in March, so I wrote and told him where I am. Did Ruth get a job up at the lake? Asasa Sedore from Sundridge has enlisted with the Army Service Corps. There are a few boys from Sundridge in my Regiment and they know Marjorie Holt.

Well, Mother, I will draw this line to a close, and if the rumors come true, I will spend my Christmas dinner in Canada. So until I hear from you again, I will say good-bye, with lots of love to all, from your son, Wilfred.

ICELAND

Where the Royal Regiment of Canada
Guards with stately hands.

When the Nazis come, if ever,
Their scuttling hats we'll see,
Coming down the mountain side
Straight for the Battalion and me.

And then, if all goes true and well,
And all comes out unscratched,
We'll all be going home again,
The Royal Regiment unmatched.

FIRST EVACUEES ARRIVE IN NEWMARKET

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 7) in the Old Country do not have cellars such as we have but are built on solid concrete. That is the reason for the shelters dug in the gardens. A downstairs hallway, with the two walls lined with mattresses and the floor and roof overhead, was an ideal shelter. The school children have been greatly disappointed that all the air raid alarms were just practice. When a real attack occurs they are treated to toffee, which is kept in the shelters for this purpose.

There is absolutely no waste allowed throughout the land. The empty cigarette packet is returned to be refilled, the tin foil wrapping paper, tin cans—everything is laid carefully aside and collected. Wet garbage is kept separately to go to the farmers for the pigs. Old iron railings have been taken down to go for munitions. Housewives have sorted through their stock of aluminum ware, and worn or seldom used utensils have been turned over for aeroplane production.

Evacuees are only allowed to bring ten pounds per person out of the country, so the government makes sure that persons coming to Canada have responsible parties to look after their welfare.

Everyone is in the army or assisting in the war effort in some sphere. The British navy is still the bulwark of the Empire, and coastal and other defences are simply astounding, we were informed.

This chat with Mrs. Inglis made us feel that Hitler and his boy friend Mussolini have quite some job on their hands, and that they may be wise in delaying their mass attack on the Mother Country.

To see our home once more,
We'll know we did our duty
By guarding this lonely shore.

When the great day comes, if ever,
When we cross the sea for home,
We vow that we will never
From our countries roam.

We will stay by our own fireside,
And take up life once more
Where we left off, to stand on guard,
Far from our Canadian shore.

But we'll do it over time again
For our fair country's sake,
We'll go from here to hell and gone,
So Canada can be safe.

So as it is we'll stay up here,
Until they call us back,
To shed for good, and clean no more
Our rifle, boots and packs.

A SOLDIER'S PRAYER
A prayer to thee, dear God above,
Watch over you the one I love.
Protect her health, preserve her charm,
Please, dear God, keep her from harm.

Protect her beauty, preserve her hair,
Dear God, as though I was there.
In your wisdom make her see,
That she is all the world to me.

If she should wander down to town,
Dear God, do not let her down.

PLANES AND BOATS SEARCH FOR BOYS BELIEVED LOST

Planes and speed boats have been scouring the shore—infested north channel of Manitoulin Island—for John Currey, 18-year old son of Judge A. B. Currey, of Gore Bay, formerly of Newmarket, and a Keswick boy, McGinnerey, who had been visiting the Currey's.

The boys were cruising to Blind River for the weekend, and checked out of a hotel there Sunday morning. No word has been received if the boys have been located.

MAKER OF EARLY FARM FLOW CELEBRATES 94TH BIRTHDAY

Believed to have been responsible for the manufacture of the first hand plough made with a steel mould board, Jacob Anderson of Aurora Tuesday looked back on more than 50 years' service in the foundry business. For more than half a century Mr. Anderson, who was 94 yesterday, was an employee of the Fleury-Bissell Company.

Upon his retirement a few years ago, he was superannuated and he still makes an almost daily trip to the plant he knows so well, even though most of the machinery and practically all of the employees have been moved to Elora.

Mr. Anderson celebrated his birthday by paying a visit to the home of his son, the Rev. G. H. P. Anderson, of Oshawa, for a family gathering. Included among the guests were Mr. Anderson's other son, Frank, principal of the Cobalt High School, and his oldest grandson, the Mayor of Oshawa, along with his other two grandsons and three great-grandchildren.

During his four score and ten, Mr. Anderson had held every position in the old Methodist, now United Church, with the exception of the pulpit. For many years he was the secretary of the board of trustees and the official board. He also served as superintendent of the Sunday School, as a class leader and teacher. After relinquishing his many duties he regularly attended services.

Born on the third concession of King Township, of pioneer parents—his father was born at Thistletown and his mother in the county of Oxford, of Anglo-Saxon stock—he lived in the district for many years.

At the age of 23 he joined the staff of the Fleury foundry, and now, he says, only a few old tools are left in the plant that has stood in the town for 75 years. "It's a hard blow to the town to lose a factory that is more than 75 years old," he said. He doesn't think the removal of the plant to Elora will be of any benefit to the firm.

"In my many days I have seen 24 factories move and there is not one in existence today," he said, in explaining why he felt opposed to the move.

Although it is two years since he last visited the C.N.E. he remembers when all the exhibits, like many country fairs, were shown under tents. "For years I never missed going to the big fair," he said, "but of recent years I just haven't bothered. I was there when the Marquis of Lorne and the Princess Louise were in attendance, and the crowd was dense.

He added that the year the first electric railway was shown at the 'Ex' it created much excitement and curiosity among huge throngs. He also remembers the special building set aside for the display of farm implements which had more than usual interest for him.

WRITES HOME FROM ENGLAND

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Charles Thompson from Pte. Tom Smith, in England.

Aug. 1, 1940.

Dear Mrs. Thompson:

Thanks so much for the smokes, they sure are always welcome. I hope this finds you in the best, as I am. (Wait till I touch wood. Ha! Ha!) Boy, oh boy! Will it ever be great to get back home again. England's O.K.; but give me Canada all the way. It's sure tough for the people who live near where we are stationed. They are bombed and shelled most every night, but of course in time a person gets used to it. After dark not a light must be seen, not even a cigarette unless you are inside somewhere. However, that's enough of that trash. But I do want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for the smokes. I sure appreciate them. Remember me to all my friends. Goodbye and thanks.

Sincerely,
Tom.

Make sure that she has got her fare,
And then I know she will get there.

Redmen Win Protest Over Late Starting

WHOOPIING COUGH CAN BE PREVENTED

(By J. W. S. McCullough, M.D., D.P.H.)

From studies made at the Connaught Laboratories and School of Hygiene, Toronto, one gains the view that whooping cough may be prevented by the timely use of a fresh strain vaccine produced for this purpose. The study referred to was carried on for six years among groups of control and vaccinated children. Up to the present time 288 control and 1,007 vaccinated children have been followed. Of the former, 52 and of the latter 97, were in contact with cases of whooping cough. The number of cases in the first group were 43 and in the latter group 10, so that the respective percentages were 82 and 10.

Of the 97 contacts in the vaccinated group there were 23 direct exposures to brothers and sisters with whooping cough. In the 23 instances the nature of the contact was intimate and continuous (often kissing, drinking from the same cup or sleeping in the same bed). None of the 23 developed the disease from their brothers and sisters. This is very strong evidence of the protective value of the vaccine since one would not expect all of the 23 children continuously exposed to whooping cough to escape the disease.

It will be noted that there were 82 cases of whooping cough in the control group and but ten in the vaccinated children. This is another strong suggestion that the vaccine protects.

Another fact, already referred to, is that while 52 control children coming in contact with whooping cough, 43 contracted the disease giving a morbidity of 82 per cent, but 10 of the 97 vaccinated children were infected, giving a morbidity of but 10 per cent in this group.

The foregoing, added to one's own experience in the use of whooping cough vaccine, indicates that this preventive remedy should be used in all cases where there is a threat of this disease.

HILL REFUSE TO REPLAY GAME

The Newmarket softball club's protest of the Richmond Hill game here on Monday night of last week, was upheld by the league executive, but the Rose-growers refused to replay the contest. The game, which was scheduled for seven o'clock, was some twenty-eight minutes late in starting.

On the Friday of that week, an executive meeting was held, and the Hill, through their manager, promised to replay the game regardless of the result of the next game, at the Hill Monday night. After the game which the Rose-growers won 3-2, they definitely refused to continue the series.

Another executive meeting was called, and following some hours of deliberation, it was decided that if the decision of the executive wasn't upheld, no winner for the 1940 season would be declared.

While we never liked protests, and we figure the Hill is Teddie Bennett better than any other club in the league, we hope that this fracas will result in much good for another year. Fans get fed up waiting half an hour for a game to start, then a team stalling for darkness to get another chance. We are not referring to the particular game in question, but all games throughout the schedule. Ten or fifteen minutes makes a big difference.

BILL JELLEY BREAKS RECORD ONLY TO SEE IT BETTERED

Bill Jelley broke the running hop, step and jump record at the Ontario Athletic Commission camp at Orillia Saturday, only to have his sensational jump bettered by Bill Karry of Northern Vocational, Toronto.

Karry added 10 1/4 inches to the previous record jumping, 42 feet, 11 1/4 inches.

Our local Bill placed second. Bill also received a medal in the running broad jump, finishing third.

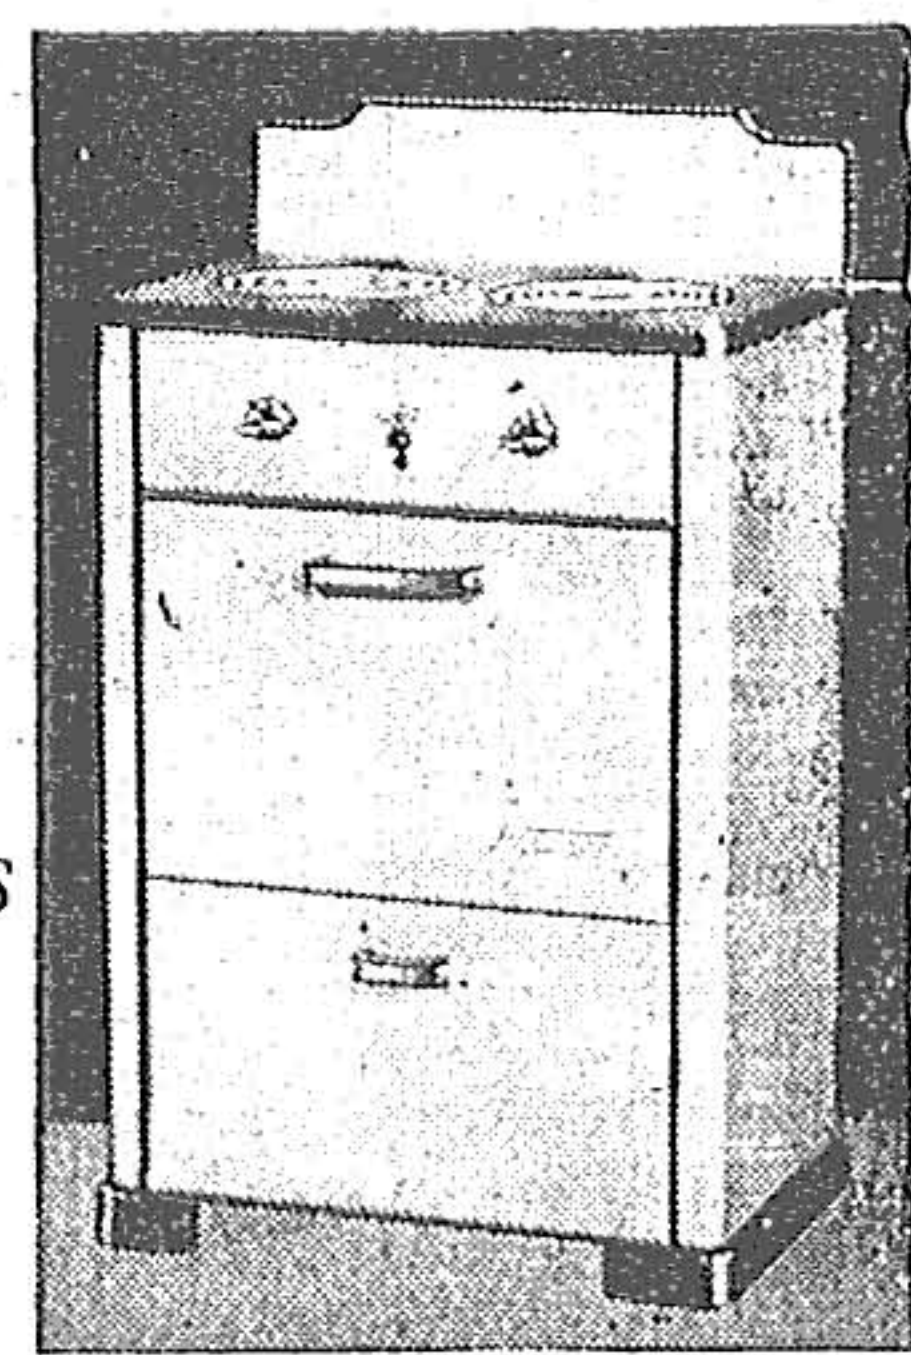

The Newmarket lad will compete in two events on field day at the C.N.E.

News and Views of People and Things by Isabel Inglis Colville

People. Between the beginning of the exhibition and October weather one feels that we've missed a bit of summer, some place, and we feel aggrieved when we close windows and doors, and regard the coal bin with sombre eyes.

It's hard to say good bye to summer before it's well begun, but the weather this year, is as temperamental as an opera star—maybe I'll be moaning about the heat next time—your guess is as good as mine.

The Willing Workers will hold their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Edson Johnston, assisted by Mrs. Wilson. Scripture lesson will be read by Mrs. Wilson. Prayer, Mrs. Johnston. The topic, "David," will be taken by Mrs. Harper. Music, Mrs. Colville. Roll call, A verse from a favorite Psalm.

The Grandmothers' meeting of the Pine Orchard branch of the Women's Institute, was held where it has been held so often before, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Flintoff, Newmarket. The meeting opened with the singing of "O Canada," and the Opening Ode, and a repetition of the collect by the members. Minutes were then read and approved, and left-over business attended to, after which the meeting was handed over to Mrs. Wesley Williams, convenor of the committee in charge. The roll call, "The First Thing I Remember," was well responded to. The Misses Stickwood, Harper and Van Luven sang "There'll Always Be An England," and in the repetition of this, the members joined. Mrs. Bert Dike gave a reading which was thoroughly enjoyed. The members were then given tissue paper and pins and commanded to "make a hat." They were worth seeing.

The girls sang three other patriotic choruses. A game, in which every member answered the question with the words, "It was I," brought out some marvellous results. The meeting closed with "God Save the King," after which we all relaxed over a cup of tea and the dainties which accompany it, and another grandmothers' meeting passed into the realm of the past.

Mrs. Reuben Hawtin and Mr. Ronald Hawtin spent a few days last week as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hawtin of Beaverton, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Thomas Cleaver of Simcoe. Miss Clara Hawtin, R.N., of Toronto, accompanied them.

A very pleasant event took place on Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Harper, when a shower was given for Miss Annie Barslaar, who is soon to become the bride of Mr. Harry Pegrose. The gifts were numerous and pretty and a delightful evening was spent.

Mrs. Elmer Starr spent last week in Toronto attending the Temperance Education Conference.

Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, Mrs. Gordon and Mr. Orley McClure returned on Monday night from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Don Petch at Charlton Junction.

Mrs. Fred West of Toronto is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Harper.

Miss Irene Harper is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Randal Chapman this week.

Mr. Jack Skinner, Miss Betty and Master Edmund Skinner were present at a family reunion held at Mr. Frank Case's at Scott, on Sunday. Mrs. Abraham Skinner was guest of honor, as she was celebrating her 89th birthday. This column extends good wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hawtin and Miss Beth of Beaverton, Miss Edith Hawtin of Newmarket and Miss Clara Hawtin, R.N., of Toronto, were supper guests of Mrs. M. F. Starr, on Sunday.

Things "Grandmothers' Meeting" A grandmothers' meeting is always a treat, for there, grandmothers, you are privileged to meet, and grandmothers now, do not look the same, as those in your childhood who boasted the name. A picture I have of just one of mine, taken when she was about 49. Of her pretty brown hair we saw only a trace, the rest was all covered with ribbon and lace. But now, see a granny, whose age is the same, her clothes and her daughter's look

LETTERS FROM OVERSEAS

July 21, 1940.

Hello Dear,—

Well here goes for that letter telling you about the trip we had last week. There were thirty of us left here and drove to Windsor. We got out of the truck and formed up and marched to Windsor Castle, where a guide took over, and we all started out.

He showed us all through the grounds, and explained everything as we went along, when the buildings were put up, who was responsible for the building of them and the kind of work it was. We stood in one place, and without moving our feet we could see five different styles of architecture, Norman, Tudor, Gothic, Stewart and Queen Ann. It was marvellous.

The King and Queen were in residence for the weekend, so of almost the same. Her hair and her hat by Dame Fashion decreed and she's up to the minute in what's right to read.

The meeting, with songs we all love, was begun, "Juanita" and others, were sung one by one—and speaking of songs, it seems rather queer, that old songs last forever—new songs but a year. Then, Mrs. Bert Dike gave a reading which told, what Dorothy Dix said to those growing old. She said not to worry about keeping slim—the main thing to do, was to cook well for HIM.

As older you grew, you could do as you please, and watch others work while you take your ease. No need to exist on orange juice and coffee, just eat what you like from potatoes to toffee.

"There'll Always Be An England" three granddaughters sang, and the echo of that, in every heart rang; and the grandmothers joined in the stirring refrain as we sang it once, and then again.

Our skill was next challenged in making a hat, we were given four pins and some paper for that. The results were, some pretty, some funny, some queer, and we staged a parade in this novel headgear.

Some songs patriotic were next on the list, and the swing of their rhythm, there were none could resist; so we sang them and meant them, which all will agree is good at this time, for you and for me.

A questionnaire followed which made us feel queer, and certainly not, what we daily appear. It made us confess to sins not our own, and no one was worried at each mournful groan.

The programme then ended with "God Save the King," sung in a manner that made the roof ring. And so, this grandmothers' meeting—the last—has found its way to memories past, and we say, as we always do, that they always have something new, and we look forward to meeting another year, with faith and hope and courage and cheer. And we hope to the grandmothers this year will bring hopes fulfilled and many a good thing.

course we couldn't go up to their quarters, but we could stand about fifty feet away and get a grand view of things.

Then we went into St. George's Chapel. Honestly dear, it is one of the most beautiful sights one could imagine. We went into the chapel where the banners of all the living knights of the Garter, and we were shown the grave where the late King is buried.

They lift a marble slab out of the floor, and as the funeral service is being read, the casket slowly descends below the floor level, where it rests until the mourners have gone. There is a large crypt below the floor, and the body is placed there until the tomb is ready.

The late King's tomb is built right in the floor of the chapel, and the guide explained to us that the body actually is above the floor level. The tomb is a beautiful piece of work made of marble, with a bust of the King as he lay dead, with all the insignia of the knights of the Garter, and his medals carved out beautifully. We were shown the different tombs of reigning monarchs who are buried there also.

Believe me, dear, it is something I will never ever forget. It is impossible to actually describe it in all its beauty, you really have to see it.

We then left the castle and got on board a river boat and had a four-hour trip down the river to Hampton Court Palace. The ride down was grand, the sun shining brightly, and there were literally hundreds of people on the banks of the river, fishing.

We had another guide through Hampton Court Palace, and again everything was explained in detail. The tapestries there are remarkable, although at that we did not see all of them, as they were beginning to remove some of the things for safe-keeping.

This particular castle was built by Cardinal Wolsey, and presented by him to the king of that time, but actually no reigning monarch has occupied the building since 1760. The beds and chairs, and large hanging candelabras are still there in their original state, and believe me, dear, it was a mighty interesting trip.

We were also shown a grapevine where they grow about six hundred bunches of especially fine hot-house grapes per year, and these grapes are sold for as high as eight shillings a pound, and the money used for charity. They claim this vine is a hundred and seventy-five years old.

The maze of gardens, with all their beautiful flowers was really a sight I will always remember. We finished our tour at half-past eight, and as the truck had gone on ahead, we got on board the river boat and arrived back in the barracks about half-past eleven. Of course it is a much shorter distance by the road than by the river, as the river winds in and out all the time.

I bought a silver cigarette case for you at Windsor, with the Windsor Coat of Arms on it, which I am sending on to you. I also have some booklets about the castle, and they will make interesting reading, you bet.

Well, my dear, this is all for now, so will say bye-bye.

Yours,

Gordon.

Iceland, July 25, 1940.

Dear Mother, Dad, Sisters and Brother,—

Here I am lying in the sun many miles from home, writing you a line. I hope it finds you and all the rest in the very best of health. I am fine and healthy, but it is just a little on the chilly side, for I just came down off guard from the mountains. It is Sunday, and it is a swell day. The boys are lying out in the sun. How is everything in Newmarket, and have you heard from Mary, Edna and Irene? How are they getting along?

We heard a rumour that Hitler was coming to take Iceland on July 16, and the boys spent most of the night cooking and preparing a hot dinner for Hitler and his men, but he did not show up, but we did not waste the meal. We are forming a brass band to march through Germany one of these bright days, and God help him when the Royals start for we stop at nothing, not even stop lights.

Don't send anything that has anything to do with wool, for we eat mutton every day, and I am growing wool, and some of the boys sure can make a good job of bagging. I sent a box of candy to May and Irene, and at the end of the month I am going to send you a box, and on the box there is a picture of Iceland. I don't know how long we are going to stay here, but as far as we know it will be until the war is over. When I return to Canada, you and I will have to take a trip to Iceland, for they say that it is quite a place. Oh, yea? Boy, when I get my feet back on Canadian ground, they will stay there for a while.

I spend most of my time writing letters and poems, for that's about all there is to do in this country. Every Sunday they fly their flags here. I have lost close to thirty pounds since I left Canada. I guess it's because I work too hard.

I made up a poem and I am going to send you a copy of it. Did you get those pictures I sent you?

We took some pictures here this morning, but we can't send them home for they may give information to the enemy. We have made signs of streets in Toronto and put them on the road around our camps, and I only wish that I was back on some of them now.

We get an issue of smokes each week, but they aren't anything like ours at home. I still have the pen and the ring that May gave me. I have quite a lot of money in my pay book, but that will come in handy when I go back to Canada, for I am going to get married. I only wish that I had before I left Canada.

I got a letter from May, and she is saving all her pennies, and she thinks that it has been a year since we saw each other, but it is only two months. I was in town, on M. P. duty last night, and there were lots of queer things that happened and things we saw, but we are not allowed to tell about them in letters.

July 27, 1940.

Dear Mother,—

The mail has arrived, and it took six weeks to bring it from the harbour, and the boys sure are happy, for it has been three weeks since we heard from home. I am sending some heather that I found up in the mountains, and they say that it brings good luck and I wish you all kinds of it. I just got your letter and was glad to hear that everybody is fine.

The meals are not too bad, and please don't worry, for we won't starve. I am glad to hear that Jean and Barton passed their exams, and I hope that Ruth passed hers too. Mother, I don't want anything from you, for I get all kinds of things, and I have lots of socks and sweaters.

Art got the Newmarket paper, and he is going to let me have it when he gets through. May sent a picture of her and me in colors, that was taken before I left Canada, and it really does look nice.

Letters are all that I will be looking for from you, Mary and Edna, and that will make me feel just as happy as the parcels.

Well, mother, I will close, hoping this letter finds you in the very best of health, and lots of love and kisses to all, from your son,

Wilfred.

I am writing each week for they take so long to come and go.

Somewhere in England.

Dear Ang and the Boys of the Soldiers' Comforts,—

I received your parcel and 300 cigarettes about ten days ago. I am very thankful for them, they sure came in handy, as I come off seven days leave. Our mail is a bit slow in coming sometimes, as they are moving us very often, and I also get my Express-Herald in every mail, which I thank you for very much.

I would like to thank you all at Newmarket for the way you think of us boys over here, and the two boxes I have received sure were wonderful.

Well, in closing, I am sure the boys over here and myself appreciate what you all are doing for us, so I will thank you again. Yours very sincerely, Gunner Reg. Harman.

B76000 Cpl. Bannison, C. H.Q. Company, Toronto Scottish Reg't., M.G., C.A.S.F. Canadian Base P.O.

To the Veterans and Citizens of Newmarket:

I sure do appreciate the two parcels I have just received. Everything was in perfect shape and the cigarettes were a God-send. Cigarettes are hard to get here, and please tell anyone who wants to send the boys anything cigarettes are always welcome.

It is rather difficult to know when we will be home again, and I only hope it will be soon. We came over here to do our bit and now we want to see action and crush Hitlerism forever. We do get a few air raids, but that is not very exciting for us, we have to take cover and miss all the fun. I have just finished seven days leave and what a leave it was. I sure did enjoy myself. A Canadian soldier over here is well thought of. I spent three days in London and the other four just travelling about, going to places of interest. We have seen some pretty hard times over here, but we always keep our chins up.

I wish to send my best regards and thanks to the Veterans and citizens of Newmarket for the parcels I am receiving and also I wish to express my thanks to the Express-Herald paper, which I am receiving safely. It is nice to read the home news. To the band boys who were at Waterloo, well done, good luck, and keep it up. I knew you would pull through. I hope to be with you next year. I remain,

Yours sincerely,
Cyril Bannison.

No clergyman being present at a recent luncheon, the host singled out a pious, solemn-looking man in black coat and tie, with a religious appearance, and asked him to pronounce a blessing.

The gentleman after being addressed put his hand to his ear and craned forward intently.

"I can tell you're talking to me sir," he said loudly, "but I'm so damn deaf I can't tell what in the hell you're saying."

CANADA'S WAR EFFORT

Weekly Review of Developments on the Home Front; Week of Aug. 23 - 29

Told in Summary

1. Meeting at Ogdensburg, New York, President Roosevelt of the United States, and the Prime Minister of Canada agreed that a permanent joint board on defence should be set up by the two countries at once. The board will commence immediate studies relating to sea, land and air problems, including personnel and material. It will consider in the broad sense the defence of the North half of the Western Hemisphere and consist of four or five members from each country, most of them from the services.

2. Canada is to issue a second war loan of from $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 early next month. Holders of Dominion of Canada 4½ per cent. bonds maturing on September 1 will be given opportunity to exchange their maturing bonds for bonds of the new issue. Terms of the new loan will, it is expected, be announced September 6.

3. Captain Victor G. Brodeur, Royal Canadian Navy, appointed Naval Attaché, Colonel H. F. G. Letson, M.C., appointed Military Attaché to the Canadian Legation in Washington.

4. Personnel of the Canadian Navy is nearly six times as great as it was a year ago, announced Hon. Angus Macdonald, Minister of National Defence for Naval Services. Approximately 10,000 Naval officers and men are on active service.

5. Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian High Commissioner in London, cabled the Minister for Naval Services that "the quiet but effective work of Canadian destroyers on convoy service is valued highly by Admiralty, and it is of special interest that among their duties has been the escort of Australian troops en route to Britain."

6. Adjustment of educational requirements for appointment to Army commissions in the C.A.S.F. announced by Department of National Defence.

7. Hon. C. G. Power, Associate Minister of Defence, accompanied by army, navy and air advisors, conferred on defence with Newfoundland authorities in St. John's, Newfoundland.

8. Armored brigade authorized for the C.A.S.F. Brigade will consist of four battalions of the C.A.S.F., and will be equipped with 200 tanks in addition to other armoured vehicles. Col. F. Worthington, M.C., Commanding Officer of the Canadian Armored Fighting Vehicles Training Centre at Camp Borden, will command the brigade.

9. In addition to approximately 40,000 troops overseas, strength of the C.A.S.F. in Canada as of August 14th totalled 114,003. Of this total, 26 companies were veteran home guards. Strength of the non-permanent active militia stood at 100,731 of which 21,500 are at present in training camps. Name of the Veterans Home Guards is to be changed to Veterans Guard of Canada.

10. For three days, thousands of registrars, their deputies and volunteer workers, engaged in war-time registration of eight million Canadian citizens.

Lucky number draw for ten 20-lb. Bags of Sugar, at Newmarket, Saturday night, Aug. 3rd.

NEWS FROM KING CITY AND DISTRICT

Dedication of the new pipe-organ in All Saints' Church, King, will take place Sunday, September 1, at 11 a.m., D.S.T. The Rt. Rev. A. R. Beverley, M.A., D.D., will officiate. The Rector, Rev. E. W. G. Worrall, will be celebrant at the Holy Communion. The organist will be Robert Jacques, Mus. Doctor of Toronto. Full forms of service are being printed to be placed in the hands of those present.

The organ is the gift of the family of the late George and Sarah Watson, and is being dedicated to their memory. The Jacques Organ Company of St. Hyacinth, Quebec, are the organ builders. Heintzman and Co. of Toronto are the agents. The beautiful tone of the organ is its main asset. The organ consists of 32 pedal keys, five octaves. It has the following stops: Forte, mezzo forte, great sub, great unison off, great octave, great super, swell sub, swell unison off, swell octave, swell super, great pedal, great octave pedal, great super pedal, tremulant.

The hymns for the morning service are selected to encourage congregational singing, and at the same time to demonstrate the various organ tones.

An organ recital will be given at Evensong which commences at 7.30 p.m., D.S.T. Dr. Jacques will officiate once again. Among his selections will be the following: "Trumpet Tone," Purcell. "The Swan," Saint Saens. "Largo," Handel. "Gavotte," Wesley. "Evensong," Martin. "Prelude and Fugue in E Minor," Bach. "Berceuse," Vienne. "Pomp and Circumstance," Elgar.

A solo will be sung by Mr. R. Edmunds of Richmond Hill, at this service.

The organ is lodged in the new organ memorial room, built on the south side of the church chancel. The dedication of this room cannot take place for some time. It will be in memory of Old Friends of All Saints'. The names of the donors will be inscribed upon a brass tablet, which will be cemented into the wall. It is the hope of the congregation that numerous names of "Old Friends" will appear on the tablet. The first official service with the pipe-organ in All Saints' is of interest to the community because it is the only pipe organ in the vicinity, and because it is a memorial gift to the memory of highly respected and long residents of the district, the late Mr. and Mrs. George Watson. The gesture, on the part of their family, is a noble one, and one that can be shared and enjoyed by all of us who appreciate good music. The general public will no doubt be given the opportunity at certain times to renew interest and inspiration in pipe organ music.

On Sept. 1, St. John's Oak Ridges, will hold service at 9.30 a.m., D.S.T., and St. Stephen's, Maple, will be closed, thus both congregations will be able to join All Saints' King, in the day's special occasion.

Eversley Presbyterian Church will hold anniversary services on September 15.

Temperanceville United will hold anniversary service on Sept. 29, with Rev. Mr. Fockler of Maple, and Rev. Mr. Atkinson of Stouffville, in charge.

The play-cast of St. Mary's Magdalene Church, Schomberg, will hold a picnic at Innisfil Park, Lake Simcoe, this week.

Laskay church baseball team held an ice cream social last Thursday at the church, one hundred present including several from King, Teston and Nobleton Young People's. Miss Doris Hollinshead gave recitations; Mr. Jack Smith, mouth organ and songs, and Robert Watson, violin numbers. The proceeds will be used to pay for equipment for the team.

Eversley Presbyterian W.M.S. held its regular meeting at the church last Wednesday. Miss Ferguson took the Goforth Study Book, and Ethel Ferguson a reading. Plans were made for a towel and small article shower for September bazaar packing meeting at Miss Alice Ferguson's, September 18. The annual Fall rally was planned in part, with the hope that a prominent speaker and visiting auxiliaries would be present at the October Thanksgiving meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle Scott and members of the Hunter family, took a trip to Guelph and Fergus on Sunday.

Mrs. McGill of Manitoulin, her brother, Mr. Harland, and wife, called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Archibald, on Sunday. Mrs. McGill renewed school day acquaintance with Mrs. Arthur Wellesley. Miss Lily Dyke of Kingston is also visiting her sister, Mrs. Archibald.

Flying Officer Charles Gates of Malton visited his grandpar-

He voiced his appreciation for such effort in all parts of the riding.

Mr. Harry Jarvis and sisters entertained the staff of polling booth No. 5, King, on Wednesday evening, at the close of the final registration day. The party enjoyed the hospitality of Jarvans.

We are glad to report the favourable recovery from acute illness of Mrs. Ed. Kyle, townline.

Miss Elizabeth McClure of King, with Misses Roberta and Mildred Gillies of Weston, are spending vacation at Port Carling.

Mrs. Leonard Kaake of Nobleton has been appointed trustee of S.S. 19.

No report has yet come in that King township schools will not open on Sept. 3.

School Boards advise pupils old enough to help on the farms to contact their teachers. Parents and teachers to co-operate in the plan. A very small percentage of public school pupils are old enough to be of any real assistance on the farm.

According to Toronto newspapers, Mrs. A. K. McLaren and Jean of 15 Barton Ave., were injured at Lansing while motoring on Sunday. Mrs. McLaren's arm and knee were hurt, and Jean received concussion. This is very regrettable, and we hope things are not too serious.

William Nattress of Elders Mills has purchased Mrs. John Wilkie's farm on the tenth. The Nattress farm, which was the McClure homestead, and the Wilkie farm are both landmarks in two townships.

Master Bob Britton of Toronto is visiting at Mr. Chas. Cohen's.

KESWICK

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Miller of Orillia, were guests of their aunt, Mrs. Wm. S. Terry, on Sunday.

Mrs. Rose of Sutton, was the week-end guest of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Cecil Taylor.

Fears are felt for the safety at time of writing for John Currey, son of Judge Brock Currey, of Gore Bay, and of Billy McGonerty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McGonerty of Keswick, who was visiting the Curreys at Gore Bay. The boys started across the lake from Blind River to Gore Bay on Sunday evening, but failed to return. Aeroplanes searched Monday and Tuesday, and as we write grave fears are felt for their safety.

We extend sympathy to Mr. Lloyd Pollock and other members of the family in the death of a loved mother, Mrs. John Pollock who passed away at her daughter's, Mrs. Donald Davidson's, in Newmarket on Sunday, Aug. 25. She was born in North Gwillimbury 83 years ago, and made and kept for many years friends who grieve at the passing of a lovely mother and friend.

Miss Muriel Mahoney of Queensville, spent Tuesday a guest of her cousin, Miss Bessie Terry.

Miss Mary Givens of Toronto, is spending her holidays at Mrs. Chas. Willoughby's, Island Grove.

Mr. Jack Bond and friend of Guelph spent the weekend at the Powers cottage, Keswick Beach.

Quite a number from here enjoyed the annual corn roast at Carl Anderson's on Saturday evening, Aug. 24.

Keswick Red Cross Society. Keswick branch of the Canadian Red Cross Society gratefully acknowledge, and thank the many who, by their gifts and support, aided generously the amateur contest at Indianola Beach Park, and the tea given at Keswick Beach. Donations of cash were received from, Mr. Walker (Toronto and Orchard Beach), Mr. Ross McMillan, Mrs. Walker Prosser, Councillors Jas. Nelson and Harold Glover, Mr. Alan Savage and Mr. Elmer Peters. Reeve Hopkins presented the fine pig, Mr. and Mrs. W. Richmond, River Edge, a springer spaniel pup, Mr. Wm. Lewis a collie pup and Mrs. Wm. Lewis a duck. Edwin Marritt, a bantam hen and chicken, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. King a bantam rooster.

Persian kittens were given by Mrs. John Baines, Miss Dorothy White, Mrs. J. English and Mrs. Ross Pollock. Jack Hogg, a turtle. Mr. and Mrs. W. Collins, Newmarket, a number of lawn ornaments.

The following contributed many varied articles: Councillor John Smith and Mrs. Smith, Councillor Harry Babb and Mrs. Babb, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Prosser, Sutton Dairy, Hill's Wholesale, Richmond Hill; Newmarket Wholesale, McCormack's, Neilson's, Scanlon's, Mr. Alvin Rye, Mrs. Lockie (Belhaven), Mr. Jack Winch (Belhaven), Mr. William Marritt, Miss Joy Marritt, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Morton, Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson (merchant, Belhaven), Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Armstrong (Toronto and Poplar Point), Mr. and Mrs. Sam Pegg, Mr. and Mrs. Parker (Rainbow Gardens, Christie's Bread, Cook's Bread, Canada Bread, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. White, Mrs. Orvan Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pollock, Shell Garage (Keswick), National Grocers, Higgins & Burke, Cameron Bros., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gable, Mr. Wm. Purdy, Canada Packers, Swift's Packing House, White's, Fuller's, Belhaven Garage (Mr. L. Kaye, prop.), Mr. R. W. Fisher, Mrs. Herron and Miss McKay, Orchard Beach T. Room, Coca Cola, Orange Crush, 7 Up, O'Keefe's, Evangeline, Wilson's, Wynola, all of Toronto. Hogg's Nurseries (J. Hogg, prop., Keswick), and Miss M. Lloyd, Toronto. Without exception, all the local business people donated articles themselves and co-operated to the very fullest extent in making both these recently held affairs so successful.

Mr. Startup of Orchard Beach and Toronto loaned the flags for decorating purposes, and the chairs were loaned by the United Church. The Royal Simcoe Hotel through the kindness of Mr. Brown, offered the use of the hotel in case of inclement weather. And again thanks to Indianola Beach Park Association for the use of the park and equipment, and to the ladies who made the tea at Keswick Beach possible. The Society also acknowledges with thanks, the sum of $28.50, received through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Grant, the same being the proceeds from concerts given at Big Bay Point Hotel, by both adult and younger guests.

A meeting of Keswick branch of the Can. Red Cross Society will be held on Tuesday evening, Sept. 3, in the public school, Keswick. A full attendance is requested.

Mrs. Alex. McPhail of Cornwall was a recent visitor at her brother's, Mr. P. Vail's home.

Miss Mary Givens of Toronto is visiting Mrs. Chas. Willoughby. Mrs. R. W. Fisher and Donald are visiting in Toronto and elsewhere.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Anderson (nee Leola Pollock) who were recently married in North Bay, were honored on Friday evening when friends from Toronto, Keswick and other places gathered at the home of the bride's brother Mr. Arthur Pollock, and presented them with a miscellaneous shower of beautiful and useful gifts. Mr. Wm. Davidson, in his usual cheery, informal manner, made a splendid master of ceremonies. The living-room prettily decorated with vari-coloured streamers, etc., made an effective setting for the happy occasion, the gifts being carried in an exquisitely trimmed basket—the work of Miss Joan Baines, by two pretty young nieces of the bride, Ruth Alder and Edwina Sheppard. Mrs. Arthur Pollock was assisted in the serving of the delicious lunch by Mrs. Wilmer Sheppard of Toronto, Miss Marjorie Glover and Mrs. Vail. The best wishes of a host of friends are extended to the young couple, who will make their new home in Roseneath.

W. C. T. U.

News From Abroad

The W.C.T.U. of Finland continues its work, although, no public meetings may be held, and there is a shortage of funds. In that country which fought so bravely to maintain its independence from Russian domination, their Army was a teetotal army. Milk rations were issued to their soldiers.

The president of the W.C.T.U. in Scotland writes that they are very busy with canteen work, and that both England and Scotland are trying tremendously to get the War Council to pass some drastic legislation for the restriction on the manufacture and consumption of liquor. The women are doing much work on behalf of the troops, and posters are shown in their canteen units. These are some of the posters: "Airmen—Alcohol in your system is like sand in your engine."

"Sailors—Public Houses are the floating mines when you are ashore." "Civilians—To abstain is a national service."

In each unit some one in command had requested permission to take the posters to other camps.

In Australia, according to "Everybody's Monthly," published there, excellent social conditions exist in "dry camps," because no liquor license has been granted to military canteens. Since 1914 military training camps have been technically "dry." This had proved so satisfactory that the Federal Cabinet decided to maintain the policy after the war.

Many earnest requests from Temperance and Church authorities had been made for liquorless camps, and no doubt this had a great bearing on the decision. Many men who are moderate in their use of alcohol, and grow restive, under the restraint, yet realize, that the "dry camp" is a wise policy in the interest of all concerned. They go on to say: "Other nations might take a tip from Australia these days, when each country tries to have the most efficient army."

One woman writing in the Homemaker's page, suggested that if all women in the churches would unite in this campaign, with the women of the W.C.T.U., they might be able to close the liquor shops. Why are the women so anxious about these things? Because they and the children in the homes of our land.

POSSESSION OF SLOT MACHINE BRINGS CONVICTION

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 7) as the result of an accident which took place some time ago when George Davies of Musselman's Lake was struck and seriously injured by a car driven by Bruce.

Joe Cooperberg of Toronto pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving and was fined $10 and costs or 15 days.

Constable Joe Jardine testified that Cooperberg, who was driving a truck with a stake body, was taking about thirty people from Toronto to Jackson's Point on Sunday afternoon, August 4. These people were paying the driver $9. The hook on the back of the truck, which holds the rack was not fastened, and as a result Miss Mitchell was thrown to the pavement. She was taken to York County Hospital and remained there for one week. Accused had paid all expenses and the doctor bill.

Preston Hoben of Toronto appeared on a charge of failing to report an accident.

"On August 6 I arrived at the scene of an accident at 9.15 a.m., which happened on the Bradford flats," testified Constable Ferguson. "I found a Ford coach facing west in the ditch, damaged to the extent of $200, belonging to Preston Hoben of Toronto. The owner failed to report until after I had made several investigations. The accident had happened at 5.15 a.m. on August 6, and accused reported on August 7 at 7.30 p.m."

"I was knocked out after the accident," said accused. "When I came to, I was on the chesterfield at home. My sister got her father-in-law to notify the police and he got in touch with Constable Lawrence, and told him how the accident happened. About 9 o'clock that morning the officer came to the house. My insurance agent advised me to get in touch with the officer at Aurora."

Mrs. Thompson, a sister of accused, and who was a passenger in the car, testified that her brother collapsed after the accident.

Charged with speeding by Constable F. Dunham of Aurora, Wm. J. Keenan of Toronto was fined $8 and costs; E. William, Toronto, $7 and costs; Reg. Homer, Toronto, $6 and costs; George S. Walwin, Richmond Hill, $8 and costs; James Johnstone, Toronto, $8 and costs; Stanley A. Bailey, Toronto, $8 and costs; Frank Silverberg, Toronto, $8 and costs; Sarah Jarman, Toronto, $8 and costs; Frederick Webster, Toronto, $5 and costs; William Silverberg, Toronto, $8 and costs; Ernest Farmer, Toronto, $8 and costs.

Charged with speeding by Constable K. Mount, Harvey J. Bongard, Toronto, was fined $8 and costs; J. A. Smith, Sandford, $8 and costs.

Charged with speeding by Constable J. Jardine, Harry Bazos of Toronto was fined $8 and costs; James McCluskey, Toronto, $8 and costs; James Manley, Toronto, $8 and costs; Emily Coates, Toronto, $8 and costs; Canadian Industries, Ltd., Toronto, $5 and costs; S. Watson, New Toronto, $8 and costs.

Charged with speeding by Constable Carl Morton, Albert Hadad, Toronto, was fined $8 and costs; H. Grant, Toronto, $5 and costs; Leonard C. Ridstill, Toronto, $5 and costs; Bertram R. Caplan, Toronto, $9 and costs; Joe Copeland, Toronto, $10 and costs; Sylvia Narrol, Toronto, $10 and costs.

Charged with speeding by Constable Hill, Norman K. Hodgins of Toronto was fined $8 and costs.

James Graham of Toronto and Royal J. Short of Toronto charged with speeding by Constable J. Sloss, paid $8 and costs.

The young wife was in tears when she opened the door for her husband.

"I've been insulted," she sobbed. "Your mother insulted me."

"My mother," he exclaimed. "But she is a hundred miles away."

"I know, but a letter came for you this morning and I opened it."

He looked stern. "I see, but where does the insult come in?"

"In the postscript," she answered. "It said: 'Dear Alice, don't forget to give this letter to George.'"

are the greatest sufferers. They do not want husbands, fathers or sons to have that temptation before them daily, and then, after the war is over, to come home, if spared, wrecks morally.

We trust that all will be done for our soldiers to make them physically fit, for the severe task before them, and that also, they will receive at our hands, that which will give them true courage and endurance.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union is an organization founded solely to combat the liquor traffic and expose the evil effects of the use of narcotics, and women all over the world, and there is a great host of them, are doing what they can to inform the people of the evil effects in the use of either. The task is tremendous, but we will "keep on, keeping on" with Divine

THIS MAY BE TRUE?

Newmarket, Ontario, August 24, 1940.

Mr. Angus West, Express-Herald, Newmarket, Ontario.

Dear Sir:

This was found in a magazine, see what you think of it.

The name of it is—

"It Is Fit We Should Knit, But What We Knit Should Also Fit"

Remember the soldier lad who wrote to wit—

"Thank you kind lady for them socks you knit, They sure were nice, and such a dandy fit, One made a helmet, the other a mitt."

So I prithee maidens as you do "your bit" From this warrior's letter reap some benefit.

Though maps may change and borders vaporize, Both a soldier's feet are the very same size.

Yours, Experienced.

A young lady entered a stationery store and asked for a pound tin of floor wax.

"I'm sorry, miss," said the clerk. "All we carry is sealing wax."

"Don't be silly," he snapped. "Who'd want to wax a ceiling?"—Selected.

Of all the insects, only bees and silkworms have been importantly domesticated.

Civilian Holds Important War Post

Phillip A. Chester Given High Rank In Ordnance

One of Canada's most important war-time military jobs has just been given to an out-and-out civilian, which, in days not long past, would be considered a highly unorthodox thing to do. But this little war we are in is a civilian's war—a war of the common people fighting for all the things they think worth while, and when there comes into view a civilian who can do a certain military job better than the available soldier, it is very good business on the part of the powers that be to turn the job over to him.

That is why Phillip A. Chester, widely known as the North American General Manager of the Hudson's Bay Company, is now the assistant Master General of Ordnance of this country's army.

For some time Mr. Chester has been responsible for the operations and fortunes of the great Hudson's Bay wholesale and retail stores, and since the Ordnance Department is one that is largely concerned with store-keeping, he would seem to be the right man for the job. He will be responsible for all equipment and clothing of the fighting forces. Everything from tooth-brushes to trousers and tanks will come under his management, to say nothing of food for men, guns and machines and he must see that all these things are at hand when and where they are needed, and that every item comes up to the standard required.

Mr. Chester served in the British Army during the last war. He enlisted in the ranks of the 3rd Battalion, Kings Royal Rifles in August 1914 and served continuously in France until 1919 with the exception of two short periods when he was wounded. He was demobilized with the rank of Captain. In this war he will carry no military rank and wear no uniform, but will be one of that army of civilians whose work is so vitally important in maintaining the efficiency of our fighting forces. Mr. Chester joined the staff of the Hudson's Bay Company in 1923 and was appointed General Manager for all the Company's operations in North America in 1930.
